

Judge Thomas R. Mulroy
Law Division – Commercial Calendar
Chambers 2207
Richard J. Daley Center
Chicago, Illinois 60602

Biography

Judge Mulroy served as an Assistant United States Attorney in Chicago from 1973-1976. Thereafter, he joined Jenner & Block where he was a partner until 2001 when he left to found his own law firm. In 2003 he became a partner at McGuire Woods and in 2007 he was appointed to the bench.

He was a commercial trial lawyer with a national practice representing corporations and individuals in complex cases involving, class actions, securities, white collar criminal defense, contracts, insurance, corporate, environmental and intellectual property matters. He has been active in writing and teaching continuing legal education on subjects such as, attorney discipline and ethics, trial practice, evidence, electronic discovery and expert witnesses.

He sits in the Law Division, Commercial Calendar section where he hears commercial cases.

Professional Activities

- Fellow, American College of Trial Lawyers
- Member, Board of Governors, Loyola University School of Law
- Member, investigation and appellate panels, Attorney Registration & Disciplinary Commission (1976-1989); Special Counsel, Attorney Registration & Disciplinary Commission (1990);
- Chairman, Chicago Bar Association Judicial Evaluation Appellate Review Panel
- Chairman, American Bar Association's Civil Procedure & Evidence Committee
- Member, Loyola University School of Law, Trial Practice Advisory Board
- Board of Directors, Legal Assistance Foundation (1989-1991); Board of Directors, Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education (1987-1991); Board of Directors, Illinois Bar Foundation (1996-1998)
- American Bar Association: Chairman, Civil Procedure & Evidence Committee
- Chicago Bar Association: member Committee on Evaluation of Judicial Candidates (1981-1985), Committee to Evaluate Federal Judges (1989); Continuing Legal Education Committee
- Adjunct Professor of Law, trial practice: Loyola University, Northwestern University and DePaul University; Lecturer: Northwestern School of Law, Scientific Evidence; Instructor: International

Trademark Association Trial Advocacy Workshop; How to Prepare Your Case for Trial, National CLE Seminar (1999-2001)

Selected Publications

- "Use of Experts in Product Liability Cases," Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education (2006)
- "A Suggested Rule for Electronic Discovery," DePaul Business & Commercial Law Journal (2004)
- "Illinois Not-For-Profit Corporation Act, A Review" (2002)
- "Internal Corporate Investigations," 1 DePaul Business Law Journal (2002)
- "Illinois Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission: Its Structure Operation and Limitations," Loyola Law Journal (1998)
- "The Attorney and the Testifying Expert," CBA Record (January 1996)
- "Key Issues Relating to the Discoverability of Computerized Trial Preparations," Trial Diplomacy Journal (May/June 1996)
- Editor: "Annotated Guide to the Rules of Professional Conduct," Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education (1991)